A very good descriptive letter regarding Edmonton and surroundings from the pen of C. E. D. Wood appears in the MacLeod Gazette of last issue.
China has sent a special agent to Japan with instructions to accept any terms of peace except the cession of any portion of China proper to Japan.

The morning Baptist service and the evening Methodist service, in South Edmonton, will be suspended on account of the opening service in the Presbyterian church on the approaching Lord's day.

THE framework of the tower for the new windmill at Alf. Brown's livery stable is completed. This windmill will draw the water from the well, 160 feet deep, bored during last summer and will supply the livery stable with a continual flow of water, besides being of use as a means of fire protection.

At the meeting of the mock parliament on Tuesday evening the new government was announced. The evening was principally taken up in discussing proposed amendments to the constitution. A provision intended to prevent the packing of the house was adopted, under which a member must be nominated in open house at least one week before he becomes a member and is entitled to vote.

The lecture given by Rev. John May of Calgary, in Robertson hall on Tuesday evening, had a very small attendance. Notwithstanding this fact Mr. May delivered his lecture on "Old Boys" and certainly more than justified the high praise which he has received from the Calgary papers. The lecture was humorous, pathetic, instructive and entertaining. Original and startling theories were put forward, but the doctrine was in all cases sound and healthful. There was not a dull sentence in the lecture. Those who were not present certainly missed a treat.

GRAIN deliveries have been brisk this week and business has consequently been good. There are a number of buyers, including T. W. Lines, A. F. Dugan, W. R. Underwood, M. McCauley, Larue & Pined, John Cameron, in Edmonton and Messrs. McLaren and Dixon and the Edmonton Milling Company in South Edmonton. Prices are still low, 20 cents being the standard price of oats; 23c to 25c for feed and up to 30c for malting barley; and 45c to 48c for wheat. As low as 18c has been paid for oats and as high as 26c on the track for a sample car of milling oats.

THE St. Andrew's society gives a concert on Friday evening in Robertson hall, commencing at 8 o'clock. An excellent programme will be presented. Tickets on sale at Andrews' stationery store.

A HOCKEY Club is being started both here and in South Edmonton. On account of the enclosed rink being too small and not built so that a game can be played there, a rink is being made on the river the correct size, when no doubt some good sport will take place. All those interested in the game will doubtless appreciate the efforts of the promoters and lend their hearty support.

MR. KER, of Brackman & Ker of the Victoria flour and oatmeal mills, arrived on Monday's train, and has been viewing the district in company with T. W. Lines. The company of which Mr. Ker is a member is one of the great institutions of the coast, and captured the highest award for rolled oats at the Chicago fair. Mr. Ker leaves on to-morrow's train.

The following is an official list of the members of the new ministry of the mock parliament and the officers of the house: Prime minister, minister of railways, canals and militia, George Purches; minister of justice, secretary of state and minister of commerce, C. The Salvation army is preparing for their annual self denial week, which will be celebrated throughout the Dominion of Canada, from December 1st to 8th, inclusive. The proceeds, which have been raised in other years through this concentrated effort, has been a remarkable testimony to the army's development and activity. Every member of the army, as well as the numerous friends of its institutions, are asked to abstain from some or all luxuries, and in some cases, officers and soldiers have determined to do without even such expenditure as is ordinarily considered necessary in order to raise funds to support the Salvation army in its many different branches. The social operations, especially, have been greatly developed during the last twelve months, and as a natural consequence, the demands upon the funds of the army have increased, which will require greater efforts to raise an increased amount during this self denial week. The total aimed for is $25,000.

THE FERRY CASE.

Humberstone vs Dinner and others. Action for damages by W. Humberstone, licensee of the ferries in front of the town against James Dinner and others, known as the Edmonton ferry company, for the unlawful running of a ferry within the limits covered by his license. The facts in the case are: When Edmonton was incorporated by the Northwest assembly it was provided that the town should have power to license ferries crossing the river from points within its limits. Under this provision W. Humberstone secured the license for a year, paying $600 license fee to the town treasury and levying rates of toll fixed by the council. The person who has the most crossing on the ferries is Jas. Dinner, who does the principal cartage business of the town, particularly in bringing goods from the railway station on the south side. The hotels which send busses to the train and the livery men are also good customers of the ferries. During the past season a number of persons, whose number is supposed to include Mr. Dinner and the leading hotel and livery men, purchased a cable and had a ferry constructed and operated quite close to the lower ferry operated by Mr. Humberstone. As the cartage teams, the hotel and many of the livery conveyances crossed by this ferry, a large hole was made in the receipts of the licensee, and in this action he asked for an account of the operations of the opposition ferry, which would show the amount of damage which he had suffered from it in loss of fees. He also applied for an injunction to restrain the company from operating in future. In court Mr. Humberstone was represented by Messrs S. S. Taylor and E. C. Emery, and the members of the ferry company by Messrs. Bown and McNamara. The plaintiff contended that as licensee of the town he had the exclusive right to ferry across the river in front of the municipal limits. The defendants contended, 1st, That section 8 of the ordinance incorporating the town was ultra vires, of the legislative assembly. 2nd That the assembly had no right to delegate the power of licensing ferries to the town. 3rd That there was no by-law of the town granting Mr. Humberstone the license, and 4th That if plaintiff had the exclusive right to ferry the defendants were not guilty of infringement upon their right in ferrying themselves or their property, and that they made no charge for ferrying. The plaintiffs' counsel contradicted the first two pleas, and in regard to the third held that a by-law was not necessary and if it was that the agreement under seal between the town and Humberstone was as valid as a by-law and was in effect a by-law. In regard to the fourth point of defendants, the plaintiff held that the defendants had no right to ferry at all within the limits covered by plaintiff's license; that if they had the right to ferry their own goods on their own ferry they were not in this case ferrying the goods of the company, but the goods of the private members of the company and so were infringing on plaintiff's exclusive right. Also that to ferry without charge was a greater damage to and a greater infringement upon the rights of the plaintiff than to ferry for hire. The case was concluded and judgement reserved.

THE FERRY QUESTION.

While the people of Edmonton have not yet lost faith in the construction of a bridge at this point, the prospect of its immediate construction does not at present appear particularly bright. If construction is not commenced very shortly we will have to depend upon the ferries as a means of crossing for another year at least. This being the case it is as well, while the conditions prevailing during the summer that has just closed are still fresh in our minds, to discuss the question with a view to the use of the ferries next season. The importance of a cheap and easy means of communication between the town and the station is not hard to discern, nor that such means of communication is vitally necessary if this town is to improve its trade with the settlers living south of the river. The ferry tolls of last season were low when compared with those paid some years ago—when conditions were very different. But that they are higher than they need be and therefore too high is proven first by the fact that the licensee can afford to pay the town out of the tolls received by him $600 for the privilege of running the ferry for a season, and 2nd by the further fact that rather than pay the tolls charged the men who had the most ferrying to do established a ferry of their own at great expense, and great risk of a great deal more expense. The control of the ferries is entirely in the town's hands and the question is, what is the town going to do about it? As far as the BUREAU can see the proper choice lies between a great reduction in the rate of tolls and a free ferry run at the expense of the town. There is also to be considered the location of the ferries. It may be that the cost of buying out the ferries and running them properly would be too great an expense and responsibility for the town to assume. The ferry tolls are either a direct tax upon the business of the town or what is worse a deterrent of business; and therefore in the interests of business should not exist. If, however, it is not desirable to assume the burden of free ferries, it is necessary to reduce the tolls to the lowest possible point. The present toll of 20c each way on double teams is the heaviest tax and the greatest injury to business of all the tolls. Foot passengers and light rigs can very well pay the present tolls, but loaded teams cannot and neither can the town afford to charge them. Again it costs no more to run the ferry across for a double team than for a foot passenger, then why should the team be charged more? If the rates for teams could be cut down to ten cents for the round trip, the town could well afford to forego the $600 now received from the ferry license. It is to be hoped that this matter will receive serious consideration before arrangements are made for another year.

STRAY ANIMALS ORDINANCE.

1. Any person who has on his premises, or in his hand, herd or flock, any animal, the owner of which is known to him, shall, unless he may have sufficient reason to believe that the owner has full knowledge of the location of the animal, at once notify the owner through the mail.

2. Any person who has on his premises, or in his hand, herd or flock, any animal, the owner of which is unknown, shall, before the expiration of fifteen days, forward to the lieutenant-governor-in-council a notice to the effect that such animal is on his premises or in his hand, herd or flock, which notice shall contain the name and location of the finder, a full description of the animal, with all the marks natural or artificial, color and probable age. Such notice shall be published by the lieutenant-governor-in-council, and a copy of the same shall be forwarded to every post office and every post of the Northwest Mounted Police in the Territories, and a copy of the same shall be forwarded with every copy of the Official Gazette of the Northwest Territories.

(a) The finder of any animal may cause a copy of the notice provided for in this section to be inserted in the nearest newspaper.

3. The owner of any animal shall be entitled to recover the same from any person in whose possession the same may be, upon tender of the fees and expenses incurred up to the time of such tender, and furnishing satisfactory proof of ownership.

(a) Such expenses shall not exceed the actual cost of keeping such animal and the amount expended in advertising the same.

4. In case the owner of such animal and the person in whose possession the same may be are unable to agree as to the amount of such expenses, they shall forthwith proceed to arbitration in the same manner as in the case of a submission to arbitration under the provisions of the arbitration ordinance.

5. After the expiration of one year, if the animal be a horse or a mule or any of the neat cattle, and after the expiration of six months in the case of sheep, goats or swine, the finder thereof shall cause to be inserted in the Official Gazette of the Northwest Territories a notice of the intention to sell the said animal after the expiration of thirty days from the publication of the notice, which notice shall contain a full description of the animal as stated in Section 2 hereof.

(a) Provided that when necessary under the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 8, the requisite extension of time shall be made.

6. All pound-keepers appointed under the provisions of "The Herd Ordinance" or under Chapter 13 of the revised ordinance entitled "An ordinance respecting trespassing and straying of animals" or by any municipality shall be deemed a salesman under the provisions of this ordinance.

7. The lieutenant-governor-in-council may from time to time appoint such other salesmen under the provisions hereof as may be deemed necessary.

8. After the expiration of thirty days from the publication of the notice mentioned in Section 5 hereof, the finder may give written notice of his intention to cause such animal to be sold by public auction by the salesman residing nearest to the place where such animal has been usually kept by the finder. Such notice shall state the time and place at which such sale is to take place, (such place being the residence of such salesman) and shall be signed by such salesman. Copies of such notices shall be posted up in at least four of the most conspicuous places in the neighborhood, one of such places being the post office nearest to the place where such animal has been usually kept by the finder thereof, and another being at the residence of such salesman.

(a) Provided that no such sale shall take place between the first day of December in any year and the first day of April in the following year.

9. At the time mentioned in such notice of sale, the finder of such animal or his agent shall attend with such animal at the residence of the salesman by whom such notice is signed, and such salesman shall thereupon proceed to sell such animal by public auction to the highest bidder, and shall, from and out of the proceeds of such sale, after deducting his fees for selling same, pay to the finder his lawful charges and expenses for the keeping and advertising of such animal, and shall forward the remainder of such proceeds to the lieutenant-governor.

10. The lieutenant-governor shall pay such surplus money, if claimed within one year after the sale, to the owner of such animal, but if not claimed within that time such surplus money shall be applied to the general revenue fund of the Territories.

11. Any person who does not comply with the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

12. The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to stock district Number 1 set apart by proclamation as a stock district under chapter 19 of the revised ordinances.

14. A salesman shall be entitled to two and one-half per cent upon the amount realized upon the sale of any animal for his services in selling same and applying the proceeds of sale in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, ALBERTA.

We were all sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Donald McLeod. Very few men were better known, or liked, from one end of the country to the other. Mr. McLeod's death makes another gap in the history of the Territories as a whole, but more so in that of the Edmonton district, where for the past 30 years he was a prominent settler.

At last our ice bridge is perfectly safe and sleighing is good.

Invitations are out for Wednesday evening next, for the second dance of the season, given by "G" troop Northwest mounted police, and the usual pleasant time is being looked forward to by everybody, and if sparring no trouble is any guarantee, the guests will not be disappointed.

Although the influx into Northern Alberta this year was large, if what a number of settlers inform your correspondent turns out so, next year will see the largest emigration we have ever had. The principal exodus is coming from Nebraska, Kansas, Idaho, Michigan, Dakota and Washington Territories.

One of our prominent citizens received a letter last week, (from a resident of the City of Winnipeg) and being unable to decipher its contents, handed it over to an expert, for a translation. As the hieroglyphics seemed to be a combination of the stenography of Sir Isaac Pitman and several other short hand writers, as well as Chinese tea box artists. That the expert failed can be well judged from the answer he wrote for the citizen in question, namely:

Fort Saskatchewan Nov. 20th, 1894.
"DEAR SIR. Your letter of no date received yesterday, but up to time of writing we have been unable to decipher its contents. Even our assistant stenographer, who has had a jag on for the past week, is unable to reveal to us any of its meaning. Unfortunately, too, our Chinese interpreter is away buffalo hunting. Please favor us with another communication, and for any sake try and write so we can read. The signature is all we can make out." Either the school or liquor questions of Manitoba must be responsible for the hieroglyphics.
Nov. 26th, 1894.

LACOMBE LINKS.

In aid of the Royal Templars of Temperance a gospel temperance meeting will be held in the Methodist church, on Dec. 16th, after the usual service, conducted by the Rev. J. Fernie, of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. Mr. Chegwain of the Methodist church. A full attendance is looked for.

We congratulate Mr. Crawford Dolmage on having secured the position of land guide in this district. A more suitable person could not be had, and we wish him every success in his new sphere.

Mr. Elmer Bruce, a talented reader and reciter, has kindly offered his services in giving an entertainment to forward the funds of the ladies aid in connection with the Presbyterian church. Dates may be looked for next issue.

Don't forget the Methodist social on Wednesday, Dec. 12th, as it will be the leader of the season.

We hope for a large turnout at the creamery meeting, to be held on Nov. 26th at 8 p. m. in the school house, as all should be deeply interested in this important undertaking.

Mrs. Yen, a daughter of Mrs. Johnston, who is at present in rather poor health, arrived last week from her home in Prince Edward Island. We hope the change of climate will very soon restore her usual health. We understand her husband will follow a month later.

A free concert will be given by the band of hope in the school house in the near future. This will be something extra, as not only home but foreign talent will be present.

Mr. Breardon, of Lamberton, returned last week from a three weeks visit at his old home, Appleton, Ont., after an absence of eighteen years, and reports having passed a pleasant time.

Our citizens were pleasantly surprised on Monday of last week, by the return of our prosperous young merchant, Mr. J. W. Johnston, who a few weeks ago went to his old home in Prince Edward Island, on business. His business trip certainly proved a success, as on his return we had the pleasure of wishing himself and the young bride who accompanied him, much joy.

RED DEER.

On Thursday last Amos and Edward Plum, of Red Deer, were arrested for horse stealing, and subsequently admitted to bail. The charge was made by Mr. Clark, the brother of the Indian agent at Hobbema. The Plums claim that the facts are as follows: They traded horses with Mr. Clark, leaving the trade open for a month in case either party was not satisfied. As the horse which they received was not satisfactory, they simply took it back and recovered their original animal, notifying Mrs. Clark at the time, as Mr. Clark was not at home.

Last week an Icelandic shot a timber wolf, in the vicinity of Burnt lake, measuring 6 feet 10 inches from tip to tip.

GENERAL NEWS.

"Dr. Lovingsheart" of Calgary, is on trial before Judge Scott for the murder by malpractice of Mrs. Shiner.

J. J. Young of the Moosehead Spectator, is spoken of as prospective editor of the Calgary Herald, under the new management.

A monitor representing the provincial district of Saskatchewan, is in prospect, and Thos. McKay ex-M. L. A., is nominated by the Prince Albert Advocate for the position.

Regina Standard: Mr. Thos. Proctor, of the Fort Qu'Appelle Vidette, died on Saturday, the 10th inst. He had been a resident of Fort Qu'Appelle for 10 years and was one of its best known and highly respected citizens.

Regina built $108,000 worth of new buildings during the past season, according to the Standard's computation. That amount included a contribution of $45,000 from the Dominion government in the construction of a court house.

Jas. Ross, M. L. A., for Moose Jaw and speaker of the late assembly, is generally mentioned as probable successor on the Northwest executive committee to Mr. Tweed of Medicine Hat, who was defeated at the late election. Mr. Ross has been a member of the Northwest council and assembly since 1883.

Moose Jaw Times: The newly-elected Legislative assembly is composed of twelve commission, lumber and general merchants, seven farmers and ranchers, two lawyers, one doctor, one journalist, one topographical surveyor, one contractor, one school teacher, and three esquires, or gentlemen of no particular occupation, who may be assumed to know a little of everything.

Prince Albert Advocate: Frank Oliver, M. L. A., to whom is mainly due the credit for the system of voting used at the recent territorial elections, certainly merits the gratitude of his countrymen for this one piece of legislation if for nothing else. A more simple or efficient plan of ballot voting could not easily be devised, and the elector obtuse enough not to understand how to exercise his franchise through it, should not be allowed the privilege. The system worked admirably in this part of the country, and its adoption for Dominion elections would be a good move.

Medicine Hat News: A civil engineer and party of surveyors, sent out we believe by the Department of Public Works, on the recommendation of the member for Western Assiniboia, have been engaged here during the present week in making levels, taking soundings, etc., for a new traffic bridge across the South Saskatchewan river, at this point. The location staked out is at a point about 400 yards below the C. P. Railway bridge, and, we understand, the new bridge is to be built on stone piers, with steel superstructure. A traffic bridge would be an immense benefit to this locality, and we hope to see it an accomplished fact before another year passes.

"Coming events cast their shadows." There is evidently a Dominion election in sight.

The Bank of Montreal statement for half year ending 31st October last, can hardly have excited surprise, or much disappointment to those cognizant of the condition under which the business was carried on for a length of time. The monthly returns have showed a decline in the note issues, significant of business inactivity. The volume of discounts has been kept low, the legitimate requirements of trade having been restricted. While money has been so lightly in demand, it has kept flowing in from deposits and the credit balances of current accounts have been unusually high. Finding no occupation in the home markets, these funds have been transferred, to the extent of several millions since April last, to the American centres where the Bank of Montreal is represented. The net profits provided a 5 per cent. dividend and some to spare.

The 220 yards race between Moosewa, of Lac St. Ann, and J. A. Allen, of Calgary, for $200 a side which took place at 3:30 today on Fraser Avenue, resulted in Moosewa winning by about a foot and a half. The course was from the Eclipse livery stable to the Alberta hotel. The race was close throughout. A very large amount of money changed hands on the result. Since his recent visit to Edmonton Allen has beaten Ritcher at Vernon, B. C., and Deerfoot in Calgary.

ELEVATOR MEETING.

On Saturday the 24th instant, a meeting of the farmers of the district was held in Room 11, South Edmonton for the purpose of discussing the advisability of erecting an elevator. Robert McKernan in the chair. Thos. Hyslop secretary. Though the attendance was small, owing to the bad weather, a considerable amount of business was transacted.

The meeting opened with an address from the chairman on the advisability of the farmers of the district forming a joint stock company and erecting an elevator of their own. The chairman also pointed out strongly the benefits such a building would confer on the farming community at large,
by increasing the facilities of storing and shipping grain; and at the same time concentrating the grain market of the district, thereby enabling buyers to purchase more easily and with less loss of time. He did not lose sight of the fact that an investment of the kind would in all probability be a paying one, as the charges on storage, cleaning, etc., would return to the shareholders of such a company in the shape of substantial dividends. He reminded those present that the grain crop was increasing every year and that there was a growing demand for Edmonton district produce in outside markets, and that it rested with the farmers themselves to assist the sale of their grain, by furthering in every way any means that could be taken to increase the exportation of grain and also produce and to exchange what they raised here for much needed dollars and cents.

The chairman's address was followed by an explanation from W. J. G. Dickson regarding the forming of a joint stock company and also the probable cost of an elevator with a capacity of 30,000 bushels, to be built after a certain design, and the estimated cost of the necessary machinery, said cost amounting in all to about $3000. Moved by Mr.
Caracadden seconded by Mr. Daly that Messrs McKernan, Dickson and Featherstone be appointed a committee to draft a prospectus for a company to be formed for the purpose of erecting an elevator. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Daly, seconded by Mr.
Caracadden that $5.00 be the value of each share. Carried.

The chairman then suggested that committees be appointed to canvass various parts of the country to promote the sale of shares. Wm. Caracadden and Thos. Daly agreed to canvass the country east from Fulton's creek to Wm. Walker's farm. R.
McKernan to take country west and south west of the town. W. J. G. Dickson the reserve and Poplar Lake. It was decided that the prospectus be issued as soon as possible so that shares could be placed on the market without delay. There was a rapid sale of shares before the close of the meeting.

Free Press: Changes in the management of Calgary newspapers are coming thick and fast. Mr. John A. Reid, who some months past was editor and manager of the Calgary Herald, and who since its suspension took a trip east as far as Winnipeg in the interests of its successor, has today bought out its rival, the Calgary Tribune, which paper he will edit and manage.
It is reported the Herald will shortly resume publication under favorable auspices.
So far as it is known, both papers will be independent conservative—or more properly, Northwest first.
